iSeeWaves and Forbmax:

Strategic Insight Session to Strengthen “MyESI – My Enterprise Security Intelligence” platform in the field of Cybersecurity.

Zubair Elahi

CCO Forbmax

We are proud to announce a strategic milestone for iSeeWaves following a high-level review with Zubair Elahi, CCO of Forbmax, a leading NVIDIA partner. Our session focused on a shared vision to strengthen the "MyESI - My Enterprise Security Intelligence" platform, moving beyond traditional digital defense toward an intelligent, self-learning future.

The leadership at Forbmax highlighted the power of iSeeWaves' 'One Hood, One Click' approach for the myESI platform, recognizing its potential to simplify and revolutionize how enterprises secure their infrastructure. By combining our advanced security logic with world-class computational power, iSeeWaves is building the next generation of cybersecurity. The future of AI-driven defense is here.
